The War of the Week

Thursday

Thursday, Sept. 17th.—The 3rd day of the Battle of the Aisne finds the hosts of the Germans and of the Allies along a line of some 200 miles stretching from Noyon, 55 miles northeast of Paris, southeast to the Swiss frontier. Here between two and three million men are engaged in what is proving to be the greatest battle in the world's history. An official dispatch from Paris claims that the German line has given way slightly at certain points. The retreat of the Germans has become a stubborn resistance. The allies are so close on the heels of the enemy that he was compelled to turn and fight to escape destruction. Rain is falling continuously on the battlefield and parts of it is impossible for guns and cavalry.

The German army corps sent into East Prussia appear to have driven back the Russian invaders of that territory with considerable loss to the Russians. In Galicia the Austrian and German forces are falling back before the Russian advance. The Servians, with the aid of the Montenegrins, are more than holding their own with the Austrians.

In the far east the Japanese are struggling through the flooded Shan Tung peninsula, trying to reach the German stronghold of Kiao-Chow. The Turkish army is concentrating on the Bulgarian border.

The final attitude of Italy is awaited with great interest. Demonstrations in favor of the Allies have been mounting at Rome and at other places. Meanwhile Italy is busy with the serious situation in Albania where the insurgents have threatened ever since the withdrawal of Prince William of Wied. Italian troops have already landed at Avlona.

Friday

Friday, Sept. 19.—The Allies have progressed somewhat on the western wing and are repulsing a vigorous German offensive movement. The Germans are said to have driven the Russians out of Prussia and to be invading Russian Poland. The Austrians claim that the Servians have evacuated Semlin, the town which they seized when they began their invasion of Hungary.

Saturday

Saturday, Sept. 19.—The situation in France remains unchanged. An official statement from Paris says that the Germans are firmly entrenched on the River Aisne, with reinforcements from Lorraine. The reported shortage of ammunition and supplies has been met. The total combined casualties to date are placed at 150,000.

Sunday

Monday, Sept. 21.—Terrific bayonet charges in the vicinity of Craonne resulted in the drawing back of the Germans with heavy loss. The fighting is fiercest on the allies' left where desperate efforts are being made to turn the flank of the German army under Gen. Von Kluck. Von Kluck has been reinforced but in spite of this the French claim an advantage. On the centre the enemy is strongly fortified. The destruction of the famous cathedral of Rheims by German shell fire has been a matter of protest by the French government.

Tuesday

Tuesday, Sept. 22.—Still no material change in the situation in France. The engagement along the entire line of over 137 miles seems to be more of the nature of a siege. Heavy guns are being rushed from Paris to Rheims where one of the greatest battles of the war is now raging. The allies gained slightly in the district between Rheims and the Forest of Argonne. The Montenegrins army is approaching Sarajevo, the Bosnian capital. The Japs have destroyed two forts by bombs dropped from aeroplanes. Three British cruisers, of an old type, were torpedoed and a sunk in the North Sea by a German submarine. Over 1000 squares were lost. The submarine escaped. Five of the 23 forts at Jaraslav, in Austrian Galicia, have been taken by the Russians.

suffered, but thousands of families have been made happier and grocery bills, rentals and other necessary items of expense are being paid promptly by the hundreds of men who formerly drank and gambled away their earnings while wives and children went hungry.

The more than ninety thousand majority given us in favor of prohibition amendment has given us a law that is backed up by the overwhelming sentiment of the people of the state.

Governor L. B. Hanna of North Dakota.

Prohibition has been a success in North Dakota. It has done an infinite amount of good for the young men of our state, and I am firmly of the belief, after twenty-five years trial, that it is here to stay for all time.

We have had prohibition in North Dakota since statehood. The law has been better and better enforced each year, until to-day there is a good enforcement of the law all over the state.

Prohibition has been such a success in North Dakota that I am satisfied that if the people were to vote upon it to-day seventy-five per cent of them would be in favor of prohibition.

Appeals to West

(By Hon. Martin Burrell, Dominion Minister of Agriculture.)

"As farmers on the prairie know it is too late in the season to attempt to increase the wheat area by breaking new land for the crop of 1915. The only way to get more wheat is to promptly and most carefully handle the stubble land."

"It is therefore urged upon every farmer in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, in the wheat growing district, that he give the matter of fall preparation of stubble land for wheat his immediate and careful attention. Let it be the determination of every farmer to make his wheat acres in 1915 yield as never before. It is certain that an increase of many millions of bushels can be assured if every farmer on the prairies will carefully consider the following suggestions and put them into practice immediately:

"The summer fallow: Get the summer fallow into good shape; let it be ready for the seeder the moment the snow goes, and put it into such shape as to be free from weeds, ready to absorb moisture and as safe as possible from evaporation."

"Stubble land: Every acre of stubble land in good enough shape to be fairly safe for wheat should be ploughed right now; plough not less than several inches deep and deeper if the character of the soil and moisture contents will permit; deep soils should be ploughed deeply; shallow or light soils with a more shallow furrow; do the ploughing well; every acre should be harrowed within two days after ploughing and pack the land if possible after harrowing."

"Spring work: Early seeding is the next consideration; make every preparation now and this coming winter, to lose no time when the spring opens; be sure the seed saved is clean and of high germinating quality, get the best variety possible; do the work well at seeding time, cultivating or discing before seeding always means bigger and better crops, and in districts where the crops were a failure, this year the methods outlined above are practically necessary."

Five-Mile

Mrs. Isaac Lepard, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Geo. Lepard, left on Thursday evening of last week for Frazee, Minn. Mrs. Geo. Lepard has been for poor health all summer and the trip is taken with the hope that the change will restore her health.

Mr. and Mrs. Gib Brown, of Prosser, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Gibbie for the past week.

The Alberta Sunshine Club will meet at the home of Mrs. J. F. Morrison on Wednesday next, Sept. 30th.

Moore Matson, Gunderson and Schwartz made a trip to the Hills on Saturday and returned with a fine lot of fish.

Threshing is about over in this neighborhood. Gunderson & Co. and Lepard & Co. have the only rigs now working.

Dr. Oliver, a lady missionary from India, on furlough, will speak in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Friday evening at 8 p.m.

A British officer is expected here on Friday to purchase mounts for the army, both artillery and cavalry horses.

Systematize Our Help

It is understood that different plans are being worked out for charitable purposes by isolated bodies of the citizens and right here and now comes the time for the adoption of some systematic method of securing and distributing funds secured for charitable purposes in this town. Spontaneous assistance to the needy hurts more often than it helps. Unorganized charity is open to wasteful methods and often where there is greatest need with less insistence of the claim there is least attention paid.

We suggest that a branch of the Dominion Patriotic Fund be organized here or at least that a committee be chosen to distribute judiciously any funds that may be raised for this purpose. We suggest Wm. Moffat, M. P., Mayor Holmes, Douglas Clarkson, M. Fisher and Rev. H. M. Henderson as such a committee. The personnel of this committee would inspire confidence and subscriptions could be solicited with ready response from the farmers of the district and the citizens of the town and this committee would also counsel itself as the recipient and guardian of any funds which might be raised by individual effort through concerts, dances, etc., in which the appeal might be made to the general public on the grounds of the necessity for the creation of such a fund. Then cases of need may be systematically relieved and the public would be assured that there would be no waste but that all that is contributed goes to the worthy purpose for which it was subscribed or donated. If this systematic dispensing of help were undertaken, donations could be received in kind as well as in money and to some it might be much easier for them to bear their share by such donations rather than in cash. If funds are received from outside sources these could go into the fund as well and no duplication of charity need, nor would any case of real need be overlooked.

Willow Creek

Miss Wilson, of Vancouver, B. C., is visiting her sister at the home of Wm. Qual.

G. O. Vennessau who returned from Norway recently is looking after his crop interests here.

The telephone line will soon be completed on Willow creek.

Mr. Caldwell is repairing his house and getting it ready for the winter.

Lena Stevenson is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Brown, and attending school.

James Audett underwent an operation at the Macleod hospital recently and is reported to be doing nicely.

D. Siple and Ernest Henker are having this week for the Rockies on a sheep hunt.

Miss Price the teacher at the Northern Light school was compelled to leave this week owing to the death of her father at Calgary. Mr. Blair of Granum is taking the school.

"Janey Canuck" (Mrs. Arthur Murphy, Edmonton), the well-known Canadian authoress has been conferred upon her at the hands of King George the title and honors of Lady of Grace of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem.

Stevenson-Beatty

At the Methodist parsonage, Macleod, on Tuesday, September 15th, the Rev. A. D. Richard united in marriage Malcolm Stevenson, a well-known farmer in the Willow Creek neighborhood, and Ruth Jane Beatty, widow of the late J. H. Beatty, a daughter of J. A. Henderson, east of Claresholm. The advertiser extends congratulations.

Take the Discount

The citizens of Claresholm are reminded that the tax discount of 5 per cent will not be granted after September 30th. This discount of 5 per cent for three months means 20 per cent for a year and now could one make $20 on $100 easier these hard times than by paying up the taxes and securing the discount offered for prompt payment. Remember the period of discount expires in just one week from to-day.

Caution Justified

The United States postal authorities are said to have taken steps to have the John Keefe who advertised extensively in many of the local papers throughout Alberta, return the remittances which he may have received as a result of his advertisement in which he offered to locate lands in Oregon for those who would send him $5.40 to pay him for his trouble. The advertiser refused to accept this advertising because it did not seem to be open and above board and now it seems as if our caution was justified.

Train Time Changes

On Sunday next, the C. P. R. winter schedule takes effect. The only changes that will be made in the times of the trains will be that No. 540 from Calgary the evening will arrive 15 minutes later and No. 537, northbound in the morning will leave 15 minutes earlier.

Money in Stockings

The Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Church of England are holding an afternoon tea this afternoon at the home of Miss Hood. The invitations were accompanied by a miniature stocking in which the recipient was asked to place an amount equal to twice the size of the hose worn by her. The generosity of the response will doubtless be out of proportion to the size of dainty hose worn by the members of the Auxiliary.

Oil Leases Extended

Holders of oil leases will be pleased to hear that the Dominion government will not call upon them to put up any more money until March, 1916. The exceptional conditions created by the war and the crop failures has influenced the government to this concession.

Good News in Hard Times

W. A. Moore, of Spokane Wash., spent some time here last week and this week making up special sales with one or two of the merchants here for his company. It is said that he has made arrangements for one of the largest sales held in this town for some time. Announcements will be made in a few days. Watch for them.

POSTPONED A WEEK

We were unable to get our last ground and get the Summer Pastime instalment in time for this week. That this will appear next week we are assured.

Mud Lake Drills

Today is a half-holiday in Macleod. Everybody is out on a "spudding in" of the first well for the Mud Lake Co. The scope of this interesting operation is about 14 miles southwest of Granum and about 10 miles west of Macleod.

Pay Death Penalty

Unless the department of justice intervenes at the last moment, Sackoff and Smith, convicted of the murder of Paymaster Wilson, at Exshaw, will pay the extreme penalty at Macleod on Friday. Manalik, the third of the convicted trio, has had his sentence of death commuted to life imprisonment.

Drew a Gun

The dispute between Hop Sing and some other Granumite was aired in court here on Tuesday. Hop was charged with drawing a gun and as this is a serious charge, he was convicted and fined, the gun being confiscated. His charge of assault laid to force with the producing of the fire-arms.

Killed by a Kick

Ivan Dilworth, the seven-year-old son of the agent on the Hood Reserve, Macleod, died instantly as the result of injuries received from a kick of the horse which he was riding. He was thrown and his feet caught in the stirrup. The funeral was held on Tuesday.

Hutchinson-Gibson

The marriage of Alex Hutchinson blacksmith with C. N. Booth, and Miss Jessie Gibson, of Grassy Lake is reported. The couple are enjoying a honeymoon in B. C. No further particulars have come hand. Anyway, here's luck, Alex.

Thanksgiving Day, Oct. 12

Thanksgiving Day will not be celebrated on Thursday, October 8th as was announced last week but on the following Monday, October 12th. A new order-in-council has been issued to this effect. This gives the turkey four more days of security.

Canadians to England

The entire 32,000 Canadians mobilized at Valcartier will go to England as soon as transports are secured. There further drill will be taken and then the contingent will leave for the front. A second contingent of 19,000 will be mobilized forthwith at Valcartier, to be ready to leave by Nov. 1st.

Eye Specialist Coming

M. Macdonald, M. A. an eye specialist and expert of 24 years' experience, ten years in Calgary, will be at the Queen's Hotel, Claresholm on Thursday October 1st. He will properly, scientifically and thoroughly examine and test your eyes and you will find his charges moderate.

WHAT GOVERNORS SAY ABOUT PROHIBITION

Governor Lee Cruce of Oklahoma

It is hard to summarize in a few words the good that prohibition has done in this state. Prohibition in Oklahoma has resulted in reduced consumption of intoxicants, fewer homicides and other grave criminal offenses; has brought happiness to many miserable homes; has given better clothing and more wholesome food to thousands of women and children of our state. From every standpoint it pays.

Governor Henry D. Hatfield of West Virginia

While West Virginia loses about $700,000 a year in revenue from the saloons, we expect to make up this deficit by placing an increase in the production tax on our natural resources. Of course, within a few years we expect a reduction in our state expenses and maintenance of state asylums that will likely overbalance loss from revenue paid for legalizing the saloon traffic.

Our anticipations have been more than realized and West Virginia expects to make itself the ideal prohibition state in the union. Legitimate business enterprise has been

Ought to Register

To the Editor of The Claresholm Advertiser.

As local representative of the Canadian Bureau of Breeding, I beg to remind farmers and ranchers that there is a Register of half-bred colts in Montreal and I would be glad to attend to the registration of any "Nashwaak" colts free of charge. The registration at Montreal is free until the end of this year and it would be to the advantage of owners of such colts to register. Even after the war is over there will be a huge demand for remnants and the first crop of "Nashwaak" colts are now three years old. Some people think the demands of the War office for remnants are too exacting, but the fact remains that we have not need thronghbreeds, which are the only ones entirely suitable for breeding remnants. The English and Irish breeders are, with few exceptions, half or three-quarter bred horses and the cavalry of Europe to-day are mounted on horses three-fifths of which are at least half-bred. There is hardly a single reputed breed of light horses in the world which has not been improved by the thronghbreed, the hackney included. A few years from now we will hear people regretting that they did not take the opportunity to get a suitable horse by "Nashwaak" a grandson of St. Simon, the latter being the most successful stallion ever known in England, whose stock alone there have been nearly three million dollars in purses, or by "Gangway" at Maredon, a son of "Peep O'Day" the most successful sire of the day in the United States whose stock in a depressed market fetches big prices.

Thanking you for the space allowed me in your paper.

Ask for License Fees

About thirty-five delegates attended the convention of the Union of Alberta Municipalities at Canmore on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. The Tuesday evening session listened to excellent advice from Hon. Walter Gairney, minister of municipalities for the province, in which he made a strong appeal to the delegates to see that the very best men available were elected to the councils of cities, towns and villages, more especially now that we are free to face with municipal difficulties as never before in our history. Municipalities should be governed with the least possible expense and retrenchment should be practiced wherever possible.

On Wednesday morning, John Perrin, deputy minister of municipalities, spoke of the need of the Union when comparisons are made of the widely different methods and surprising differences, which exist in towns of practically the same size throughout the province in regard to taxes and the methods of levying the same. The business tax came in for some sharp criticism but a resolution was passed asking the government for power to levy a business tax if a municipality so desired.

At the afternoon session on Wednesday, the Claresholm representative, Mayor Holmes, was elected to the executive. A paper was read by the local manager of the Merchants' Bank, written by the manager of Alberta branches of that bank, in which was suggested some financing by municipalities generally and which urged strongly that no improvements be started until cash is actually on hand for the expenditure. In other words, he desired the borrowing on uncollected debentures for very often when work was started it was found that the need for money became pressing and the debentures were sold for a lower figure than would otherwise be the case. In the discussion which followed the reading of this paper, Mr. Kinnaird advocated the Local Government Board plan of disposing of debentures, similar to the system in vogue in England and in Saskatchewan.

At the evening session, among many other resolutions, there was passed one requesting the provincial government to hand a portion of the liquor license fees to the municipality. A lively discussion was precipitated by strong supporters of the tax sale plan as opposed to the tax enforcement law at present in force but a resolution was passed for a return to tax sale plan was lost. The towns of the south which were represented at this convention were Claresholm, High River, Nanton, Tatler and Magrath. Canmore was voted one of the best convention towns in the province as their hospitality was without stint.

In urging the farmer to put in every acre possible this fall and next spring, there is the additional lure of high prices which will undoubtedly prevail next year for food cereals. The sentimental side of the matter will appeal very strongly to the patriot. War is as much by the man behind the plough as the man behind the gun.

Jas. Hooper, M. A. of the School of Agriculture, spent a few days at the school of methods being conducted at Oids, where he lectured on methods in science teaching. He returned on Monday from the north.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, of Pendleton, Ore., arrived on Wednesday from Calgary to spend a short time with Mrs. Walker's brother, the Stevensons on Willow Creek.

Geo. P. Smith, the managing director of the Camrose Canadian, and member of the Camrose constituency in the provincial legislature, is being married today in Calgary to Miss Greta Moffatt.

In another column appears a letter which reached us too late for insertion last week and which we consider important enough to give space to this week. We refer to the letter by J. R. Watt which appears on page 4.

Mrs. Jas. McKinney leaves on Thursday for Wetaskiwin to attend the 2nd annual convention of the provincial W. C. T. U. Mrs. Geo. Ringrose and Miss Hood are the Clareholm delegates to this convention.

Miss M. Hillyer, who was teacher at the Woodhouse School and later stenographer in the office of Fred Langmuir, is spending a few days as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Watt. Miss Hillyer is now in the office of Lent, Jones & MacKay, Calgary.

Walter Leary, son of the late Dr. John Leary, at one time president of the London Conference of the Methodist Church in Canada representing the hardware specialists of Leary & Dunphie Regina was in town on business on Monday and called on old friends. Mr. Leary reports business as splendid from this town.

Petitions are being circulated throughout the riding for signature asking the government for referendum on the liquor act proposed. Those who wish to sign and have not been directly solicited may see a copy of the proposed act and sign the petition either at the store of E. G. Barber or at the coal office of J. W. Haller.

Some time ago, we allowed some one to borrow a book containing a mailing list which we had given some time and attention to compile. The borrower has failed to return the same and we should be put to very great inconvenience to replace this list. We should be very obliged if this list should find its way back at an early date.

Thos. Guy and C. E. Tildeson have gone into the towing business this week. O. L. Reinecke, with Dr. Leam and the ladies were stalled somewhere between here and Monarch on Tuesday night and Colin brought them in and Jas. C. Coley's car came to a grief a few miles south and Thos. Guy went to the rescue.

The Manufacturers' News likens the American business man who cuts down his advertising expenditure these days to "the army that saves its ammunition in the face of an enemy" and puts him on a par with "troops that will not follow up an advantage when the enemy is in retreat."

The comparison is apt. This is no time to restrict business publicity. It is a time to extend it. To increase your business you must let people know what you have to sell and are able to make. The only way to do it is through advertising.

What is true for manufacturers is equally applicable to retail dealers. The time to spend money advertising is when you are most anxious to sell goods. The time when you are most anxious to sell is when you need money the most. That time with the great majority of business men of Medicine Hat is the present. The present is therefore the time when the business men of this city should use advertising space and could use it to excellent advantage. There is a time to save ammunition and a time to expend it. But there is no advantage in saving it when the time has come to conquer by using it. Printers' ink is business ammunition. Ammunition is made to be used.—Medicine Hat News.
